

POTENTIAL YC[®] SPEECH TOPICS

1. What can BPW offer women leaving military service and/or what can women leaving military service offer BPW?
2. How will you use your experience in the Young Careerist[®] Program to enhance/change your life or to influence others?
3. How can men and children help women achieve equality and what responsibilities do women have to educate men and children on the inequalities that exist today for women?
4. How can you, as a BPW member, assist workingwomen in educating and promoting our legislative issue of economic equity to the general public?
5. How can you, as a BPW member, assist working women in educating and promoting our legislative issue of the Equal Rights Amendment to the general public?
6. How can women's groups partner on projects and programs? To what extent should they collaborate?
7. Discuss how the women's rights movement is still alive today. Why is it still important?
8. Will the U.S. ever have a woman President of the U.S.? Why or why not? How soon? What characteristics would she have?
9. What is a top women's health issue and how can BPW women help to embrace its cause?
10. How might Young Careerist[®] candidates encourage their colleagues/peers/friends to participate or personally market the YC[®] program to increase participation and to continue their BPW involvement? How can the YC[®] generation promote BPW?
11. Has domestic violence been properly addressed at state and national levels? Why or why not? If not, what can be done to ensure the safety and mental health of women now and in the future?
12. What is the most important issue facing working women today?