

CAROLYN SAWYER

Carolyn Sawyer is a Community Organizer with the OFA LA. She is the Volunteer State Lead. She is an accountant by profession with Sawyer Accounting Services.

Born and raised in Louisiana, she attended Northwestern State University and graduated in May of 1986, with a degree in Accounting

In 2007, she trained with the OFA Pilot “Model for Organizing” in Greenville, SC.

As an OFA Community Organizer, she recruited, trained, organized neighborhood team leaders, planned and executed events. She trained volunteers in phone banking, canvassing, house meetings, etc. She served as Staging Location Director for 2008 Presidential Election of President Barack Obama.

Her work includes, OFA LA Volunteer Lead, OFA Health Care Leader, OFA Health Care National Group, OFA National Volunteer Leader and OFA Alumni Group.

After moving back to Louisiana in 2010, she continued her work with OFA, gathering support for the 2012 Re-election of President Obama. She completed the OFA LA Fellow Program in 2013.

As OFA Fellow, she planned and executed events on issues affecting our communities. Coordinated events and training throughout the state with OFA LA volunteers and volunteers Leaders. Conducts weekly conference calls to update, plan and inform volunteers on upcoming issue campaigns and on progress throughout the state.